

Luxury wine tasting

Istrian wine has become a symbol of the Istrian region and identity. The difference of the soil makes Istrian wines unique and recognizable at prestigious competitions such as Decanter, where Istrian wine producers have been winning top awards. Treat yourself to a luxury wine tasting tour and visit two premium wineries in Istria.

Unique winery Tomaz will give you a chance to enjoy panoramic views of the family vineyards and the town of Motovun, providing them with the opportunity to relish an unforgettable wine experience, while tasting 5 Tomaz wine labels with local snacks.

On the other hand, Kabola winery will present winegrowing in the family that dates all the way back to 1891. Taste 5 most representative Kabola wines paired with Istrian tapas while enjoying the traditional Istrian architecture.

The tour will include a visit of one of the hilltowns nearby – Motovun or Groznan.

Notification: If one of the wineries isn't available for tasting, we will provide another premium winery in Istria
