Magical hill towns of Istria

MOTOVUN & HUM
 WITH TRUFFLE HUNTING, LUNCH & MUSEUM

Embark on a journey through the heart of Istria, where rolling hills, medieval towns, and culinary treasures come together in perfect harmony. Your day begins in the charming hilltop town of Motovun, known for its stunning vistas and its most celebrated delicacy, the Istrian truffle.

Take part in a captivating truffle hunting demonstration, guided by skilled truffle hunters and their trained dogs. Learn about this ancient tradition as you explore the forest in search of one of Istria's most prized natural treasures. Afterward, enjoy a leisurely walk through Motovun's historic streets, soaking in views of the surrounding vineyards, the lush Motovun Forest, and the peaceful Mira River valley.

Continue your journey to Hum, recognized as the smallest town in the world. Here, you will visit a delightful family-run museum, carefully curated with passion to showcase the daily life of Istrians from a century ago. The experience concludes with a late lunch at a local restaurant, where you will enjoy traditional Istrian cuisine featuring fresh, local ingredients and the unmistakable flavor of truffles, all served with a view of the beautiful Istrian countryside.
