

Poreč & Aquapark Aquacolors

Family Day Escape: From the Coastal Beauty of Poreč to Waterpark Thrills

Discover the perfect harmony of coastal charm, history, and excitement on a day carefully planned to enchant every family member and create lasting memories.

Begin your journey in Poreč, a beautiful Adriatic town where ancient Roman heritage meets vibrant seaside life. Stroll through the historic old town, marveling at the stunning mosaics of the UNESCO-listed Euphrasian Basilica. Wander the quaint streets lined with charming cafes and artisan shops, where parents can savor delicious local specialties like fresh seafood, olive oil, and Istrian wines. Meanwhile, children will be captivated by the lively harbor, colorful markets, and hidden corners waiting to be explored. A guided walking tour reveals the rich stories behind Poreč's ancient walls, while boutiques offer unique keepsakes to cherish.

As the day warms, continue your adventure at Aquapark Aquacolors, just a short drive away. This vibrant water park invites joy for all ages, with gentle splash areas designed for little ones, exhilarating slides for thrill-seekers, and peaceful lazy rivers for those who prefer to unwind. With a variety of dining options and comfortable amenities, Aquapark Aquacolors strikes the perfect balance between energetic fun and relaxing comfort, making it the ideal destination for families to connect and create joyful memories together.

The price for a full-day tour of up to 9 hours, including a driver-guide, is as follows:

- 340 € for a car (1-2 persons)
- 395 € for a van (3-7 persons)

Please note that admission tickets to Aquapark Aquacolors are not included in the tour price and are available for purchase at the entrance.

FULL PRICED TICKET (all persons above 1,40 m height)	REDUCED PRICE TICKET (from 1,00 to 1,40 m height)	CHILDREN UNDER 1,00 m HEIGHT
36 €	29 €	FREE ENTRANCE

