

Truffle hunting

in the "Croatian Tuscany"

Embark on a unique journey into the heart of Istria, where you'll be welcomed by a local family of seasoned truffle hunters. Learn about their traditional way of life, the meticulous training of their dogs, and the cultural and culinary significance of Istrian truffles. Then, follow the dogs into the forest and experience the thrill of uncovering the region's prized "black gold".

After the hunt, delight your senses with a tasting of exquisite truffle-based delicacies, prepared with love and local expertise.

In the afternoon, continue to the charming hilltop town of Motovun. Wander its cobbled streets, soak in panoramic views of rolling vineyards, olive groves, and the meandering Mirna River - an idyllic landscape often likened to the beauty of Tuscany.
